The Stronger Together Library Conference is committed to providing a safe, welcoming, and respectful environment for all attendees, speakers, exhibitors, staff, and volunteers. This policy outlines the standard of behaviour expected of everyone who purchases a ticket or otherwise participates in the event.

By purchasing a ticket, all attendees agree to:

- Treat fellow attendees, speakers, staff, volunteers, and venue personnel with courtesy and respect.
- Engage in discussion, questions, and debate without shouting over, interrupting, or otherwise disrupting sessions, presentations, or networking activities.
- Follow the reasonable directions of conference staff and volunteers, including those related to venue safety, capacity, and schedule.
- Respect the physical space and property of the venue and other attendees.

Conference organizers reserve the right to determine whether behaviour violates this policy. Signs, placards, bullhorns, and other disruptive devices are not permitted. Depending on the severity and nature of the violation, consequences may include:

- A verbal warning and request to stop the behaviour.
- Removal from a specific session or area of the venue.
- Expulsion from the conference without refund.
- Denial of entry to future events hosted by Stronger Together.
